in america s global responsibility jesaiah ben aharon reminds readers of the founding vision of the united states and the obligations inherent in the ideals set forth in the declaration of independence

according to rudolf steiner s spiritual science the greatest spiritual event of our time is the renewal and reawakening of our human suprasensory relationship to the higher spiritual worlds the force that leads to this development called by various names in different cultural and religious traditions is called the christ impulse by anthroposophy in accordance with christian terminology because of new naturally endowed suprasensory faculties human beings are increasingly able to experience and perceive through an act of grace the great spiritual force of the christ impulse this experience is said to be a naturally given initiation and today we increasingly hear of such suprasensory experiences today however a healthy approach to these natural phenomena requires us to comprehend suprasensory experiences with full awareness and clear thinking this book builds an all important bridge between the naturally given suprasensory experience and its conscious cognition as a result empirical suprasensory research can investigate the different aspects of christ s etheric becoming and appearance in a way that both methodically and experientially fulfils the justified cognitive and scientific requirements of our age this new paperback edition adds a new introductory chapter denial of genocides in the twenty first century discusses genocide denial in the twenty first century by concentrating on communication social networks and public spheres of daily life israel is the only new state among the twenty one countries in the world today that have maintained democracy without interruption since the end of the second world war israel s case is all the more notable because its democracy was established under extremely adverse conditions massive immigration severe social dislocation the introduction of ethnic cultural linguistic religious and national differences rapid economic growth a permanent security threat that led to five major wars in thirty five years and a population that in the main had little or no experience of a democratic order in this insightful study of israel s founding period from 1948 to 1967 peter medding addresses this puzzle providing a lucid account of the political and historical conditions that gave rise to this distinctive period as well as the changes which brought it to an end the result is an eminently readable account of the state building process and of the role played by david ben gurion and other politicians in moving from consensus politics to a majoritarian like democracy medding s analysis is further enriched by his comparisons of the development of israeli democracy with that of other countries
