transmissions of memory echoes traumas and nostalgia in post world war ii italian culture discusses cultural products films poetry fiction architectural buildings autobiographical writing and social media to individuate through them the dynamics of memory the field of analysis is italian culture from world war ii to the contemporary times and the volume has in a gendered approach one of its focuses offering an encompassing view on cultural memory and highlighting the similarities between gendered revisitation and revisitation of the past the volume is divided into three sections cultural transmissions fractured memories and nostalgia in the chapters herewith the study of memory through these forms hints at a sense of transformation and often enrichment or resilience individual or collective that values more the present and the future rather than the past this book argues that contemporary italian history has been marked by a tendency towards divided memory events have been interpreted in contrasting ways and the facts themselves often contested moreover with so little agreement over what happened and why it happened it has been extremely difficult to create any consensus around memory these divisions have been seen at all levels but take on particular importance when linked to the great traumatic and life changing events of the twentieth century war terrorism disaster but can also be applied to more cultural fields such as sport and everyday life social change also has an impact on memory this book will take the form of a voyage through italy and into italy s past looking at stories of divided memory over various periods in the twentieth century these stories will be interwoven with analysis and discussion
