Nico Felicien Declercq, a full professor at the Georgia Institute of Technology, is a distinguished scholar with a Ph.D. from Ghent University and an M.Sc. from the Catholic University of Leuven. His prolific academic career encompasses numerous published works. His passion for history and genealogy led him to meticulously document his ancestral lineage, culminating in this comprehensive work. Professor Declercq's interdisciplinary approach and dedication to rigorous research have earned him a reputation for excellence in the scientific community, and among genealogical enthusiasts, he is also the author of several philosophical novels published under a pseudonym.

Getting beyond the traditional policy cycle discussed in most textbooks, the fully updated fourth edition of Politics and Public Policy offers a more comprehensive and realistic view of policymaking in the United States, one that looks beyond the jockeying between presidents and members of Congress and explores the influence of corporate leaders, interest groups, bureaucrats, judges, and journalists. The book explores six distinct yet connected policy domains: boardroom politics (decisions by business leaders and professionals), bureaucratic politics (rule making and adjudication by administrators), cloakroom politics (lawmaking by legislators), chief executive politics (decision making by presidents, governors, mayors, and their advisers), courtroom politics (rulings by judges), and living room politics (opinions expressed through the mass media, grassroots movements, political activists, and voters). The author's unique framework prepares students to evaluate the strategies of various political actors within each domain.
